transaction and other information relevant to your donation.

We use return e-mail addresses to answer the e-mails we receive and to send information about our organization. Such addresses are not shared with outside parties.

We use non-identifying and aggregate information to better design our website.

Finally, we will not use or share the personally identifiable information provided to us online in a manner or for a purpose not described herein without providing to you an opportunity to opt-out or otherwise prohibit such unrelated uses.

Children

Although Covington Partners provides community services to children, its website is not intended for children under the age of 13 and we require that users be 13 years old or older. Covington Partners' website is intended to market to and collect information from potential donors and volunteers. A person must be at least 13 years old or older to volunteer for or donate to Covington Partners and, likewise, a user must be at least 13 years old or older to submit personal information using the Covington Partners' website. If Covington Partners determines that a user has provided us with information and that such user is under the age of 13, we will delete this information as soon as possible once it is discovered. Anyone using the Covington Partners website hereby represents that he or she is 13 years old or older.

Our Commitment to Data Security:

To prevent unauthorized access, maintain data security, and ensure the correct use of information, we have put in place appropriate physical, electronic, and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

Please note that no method of transmitting or storing data is completely secure and, therefore, we cannot guarantee the security of your information. Unauthorized entry into or unauthorized use of Covington Partners' website, hardware, or software; transmissions failure; or other factors may compromise the security of user information. If you have reason to believe your interaction with Covington
